Cobeu reserve a particular emphasis on collecting, transporting, processing and putting in storage techniques. The internal engineering and design office works on the following topics:

- materials testing
- waste recovery equipment and machinery design
- recovery, treatment and put in storage factory layout customized projects
- study of materials and equipment for the transport
- tests on recovered materials for the reuse in the production cycle
- study of new recovery techniques
- recovery of the lead-acid spent battery
- recovery of the photovoltaic panel